Nan Feldman

Colorful, playful, complex, and upbeat . . . those are some of the ways to describe Nan Hass Feldman's interiors and landscapes, most based on her home environment and her travels. Nan has had over 40 one-person exhibits, been included in 28 museum exhibits, and has been in over 50 group exhibits in her 38-year career as an artist. She teaches at three Massachusetts art museums, and has taught in France and Italy. Next June, Nan will teach on the island of Skopelos in Greece. Her work is in public and private collections in five countries.
